FROM THE

SEA TO THE TABLE

Excellence of the Sea, Essence of the Mediterranean

For more than half a century, Marufina has expertly selected the finest treasures of the Mediterranean Sea, bringing them—at their peak freshness—to the most discerning tables across Europe.

Backed by the trust of international industry leaders, our products stand out for their purity, flavor, and incomparable texture, the result of a meticulous ultra-freezing process that preserves the true essence of the sea intact.

CRAFTSMANSHIP OF THE SEA

At Marufina, we transform the richness of the sea into handcrafted creations designed for fine dining, combining tradition and innovation to support professional food service without compromising excellence. Each product stands out for its exceptional quality, impeccable freshness and refined presentation, tailored to meet the highest expectations of chefs and diners alike. Through certified processes and strict cold-chain preservation, we ensure safety, reliability, and the authentic taste of the Mediterranean in every bite.

Martín Berasategui, with 12 Michelin Guide stars throughout his career, is not simply a chef—he is a living legend of world gastronomy. His name has become synonymous with excellence, creativity, and an unwavering passion for cuisine.

Born in San Sebastián in 1960, he grew up surrounded by pots, aromas, and culinary tradition at Bodegón Alejandro, the family restaurant where his vocation first began. His training in some of the finest kitchens in France and Spain gave him a cosmopolitan vision and technical mastery that soon evolved into a style entirely his own.

In 1993, he took a defining step by opening Martín Berasategui in Lasarte-Oria—today recognized as one of the world's great culinary destinations.

MILESTONES THAT MADE HISTORY

- 1993 – Opening of the Martín Berasategui restaurant in Lasarte.
- 1996 – Awarded his first Michelin star.
- 2001 – Earned the restaurant's third Michelin star, joining the most exclusive circle in global gastronomy.
- International expansion – Bringing his culinary vision to Barcelona, Tenerife, Lisbon, Mexico, and the Dominican Republic, captivating diners across continents

His cuisine is a journey between Basque tradition and bold innovation, where every dish reflects absolute respect for the ingredient, flawless technique, and boundless creativity. Signature creations such as his caramelized mille-feuille of smoked eel, foie gras, and green apple have become icons of contemporary gastronomy and a source of inspiration for generations of chefs.

Martín Berasategui does not simply cook—he creates unforgettable experiences that have redefined the meaning of flavor and excellence at the table.

At Marufina, it is a true honor to have him as an ambassador of our brand's commitment to quality.

SEAFOOD

FRESHLY CAUGHT

ULTRA-FROZEN AT SEA

At Marufina, we uphold an uncompromising commitment to sustainability and excellence, ensuring that every stage of our process meets the highest international standards.

From the moment our catch is brought from the sea to its arrival at your table, every step is carefully monitored to preserve its freshness, texture, and authentic flavor.

By combining traditional maritime expertise with cutting-edge technology, Marufina brings you premium Mediterranean seafood—an authentic expression of the sea, crafted to elevate every culinary experience.
